Gazette No. 71 dated 9th September, 2016.

A BILL FOR A LAW TO AMEND THE ELECTIONS LAW (2013 REVISION) TO MAKE PROVISION FOR ELECTIONS TO BE HELD WITH THE NINETEEN SINGLE MEMBER ELECTORAL DISTRICTS; AND FOR INCIDENTAL AND CONNECTED PURPOSES

THE ELECTIONS (AMENDMENT) BILL, 2016

MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

This Bill amends the Elections Law (2013 Revision) to make provision for the holding of elections consistent with the Nineteen Single Member Electoral Districts Boundaries Order, 2015.

Clause 1 seeks to provide for the short title and commencement.

Clause 2 amends section 2 of the principal Law to remove definitions which are no longer relevant and provide a definition for “public service”.

Clause 3 amends section 3 of the principal law to provide for the appointment of a person who holds a senior office in the public service or formerly held a senior office in the public service to be Supervisor of Elections.

Clause 4 amends section 4 of the principal law to increase the number of Deputy Supervisors of Elections which may be appointed. It also provides that a Deputy Supervisor shall be a person who holds an office in the public service or has held an office in the public service, or if not previously employed in the public service, is a person who has extensive experience as an elections officer.

Clause 5 amends the principal Law to provide for the new nineteen electoral districts and provide that each district shall be represented in the Assembly by one elected member.

Clause 6 amends section 6 of the principal Law as a consequence of the shift to the nineteen member constituency and makes provision for division of electoral districts into polling divisions.

Clause 7 amends section 7 of the principal Law to remove the requirement for the registering officer or assistant registering officer to reside in the electoral district for which he is appointed. It also provides that a registering officer may be appointed for more than one electoral district.

Clause 8 amends section 11 of the principal Law to provide for an application to be registered as an elector to be made electronically.

Clause 9 amends the principal Law to insert a new section 11A. The new 11A provides that an elector shall only have one ordinary residence and gives to the registering officer the power to request additional information to assist to establish or confirm the ordinary residence of an applicant or an elector.

Clause 10 amends section 12(1) of the principal Law to remove the words “or members” as a consequence of the change to single member electoral districts.

Clause 11 amends section 13 of the principal Law to make provision for the publication of the Registration Notice in two issues of a newspaper circulating in the Island as well by other means including radio or television.

Clause 12 amends section 14 of the principal Law to remove the requirement to physically publish the revised list in every electoral district. Provision is also being made for the annual publication of the revised list in each electoral district at the end of the first quarter in each year and also the publication of the list of changes to the revised list for each quarter.

Clause 13 amends section 15 of the principal Law to give the registering officer the discretion to lodge an objection against a person whose name appears on the list.

Clause 14 amends section 19 of the principal Law to provide for certain public officers to provide to the Supervisor, on application, any information in relation to the qualification or disqualification of a person who has been nominated as a candidate for election.

Clause 15 amends section 22 of the principal Law to provide that any group of persons whose activities indicate they have come together to contest an election, shall register as a political party. Provision is also made for the Supervisor to designate a group of nominated candidates whose activities indicate that they have come together to contest an election as a political party.

Clause 16 amends section 24 of the principal Law to provide for an application for registration to be made by the party leader or chairperson. Provision is also made for specified information about the party to accompany the application.

Clause 17 amends section 25 of the principal Law to provide for the grounds for the refusal or revocation of the registration of a political party.

Clause 18 amends section 26 of the principal Law to permit the Supervisor to request additional information upon receipt of an application. It also provides for the Political Party Register to include the names of the party leader or chairperson and the address of the political party’s headquarters.

Clause 19 amends section 27 to provide for an appeal against a revocation of the registration of a political party.

Clause 20 amends section 29 of the principal Law to provide for the making of a declaration as to the qualification status of a candidate at nomination. Other consequential amendments are made to conform to single member electoral districts.

Clause 21 amends the principal Law to insert a new section 29A. Provision is made for the Supervisor to petition the Court for a declaration in relation to whether a nominated candidate does not qualify to be a candidate pursuant to section 61 of the Constitution or is disqualified pursuant to section 62 of the Constitution.

Clause 22 amends section 30 of the principal Law to make it an offence to knowingly nominate a person who is not qualified pursuant to section 61 of the Constitution or is disqualified pursuant to section 62 of the Constitution. Provision is also made to make it an offence to knowingly consent to be nominated where that person is not qualified pursuant to section 61 of the Constitution or is disqualified pursuant to section 62 of the Constitution.

Clause 23 amends section 31 of the principal Law as a consequence of the change to single member electoral districts.

Clause 24 amends section 34 of the principal Law as a consequence of the change to single member electoral districts.

Clause 25 amends section 35 of the principal Law as a consequence of the change to single member electoral districts. Provision is also made that where there are insufficient or inadequate facilities to be appointed as polling stations, the Supervisor may, by notice, appoint a polling station for a particular electoral district in another electoral district.

Clause 26 amends section 40 of the principal Law to provide for the making of an application to appoint an agent for a candidate on Form 25 and the taking of the oath by the agent on Form 25A.

Clause 27 amends section 41 of the principal Law to make provision for the required information that must be placed on the Ballot paper. This will now include the full name of each candidate, as well as the candidate's photograph and the symbol of the party to which the candidate belongs or the symbol of the independent candidate.

Clause 28 amends section 44 of the principal Law to expressly provide that a person cannot vote for more than one candidate.

Clause 29 amends section 47(3) of the principal Law as a consequence of the change to single member electoral districts.

Clause 30 amends section 49 of the principal Law to make it an offence to assist more than one elector to vote.

Clause 31 amends section 56 of the principal Law to provide for the assistant returning officer to be present in the polling station. It also provides that the candidate and his agent or two agents of the candidate shall not be allowed in the polling station at the same time for in excess of fifteen minutes.

Clause 32 amends section 58 of the principal Law as a consequence of the change to single member electoral districts.

Clause 33 amends section 61 of the principal Law as a consequence of the change to single member electoral districts.

Clause 34 amends section 67 of the principal Law to increase the maximum amount that can be spent by a candidate of a political party or an independent candidate to forty-two thousand dollars and thirty-six thousand dollars respectively.

Clause 35 amends section 109 of the principal Law to change “Governor in Cabinet” to “Cabinet”.

Clause 36 amends the principal Law by repealing Schedule 1 and substituting a new Schedule 1 which details the new nineteen single member electoral districts.

Clause 37 amends the principal Law in Schedule 2 to update numerous forms as a consequence of the change to the nineteen single member electoral districts.

Clause 38 amends the principal Law in Schedule 3 to correct some typographical errors and also to make provision for the delivery of Postal Ballots by the Cayman Islands Postal Service Express Mail Service.

Clause 39 makes provision for savings provisions.

DIRECTION FOR THE GUIDANCE OF ELECTORS

1. An elector must not vote at more than one polling station.
2. An elector may vote for 1 candidate only. If the elector votes for more than 1 candidate the ballot paper is void and none of the votes will be counted.
3. If an elector attempts to give a candidate more than 1 vote the candidate will be awarded 1 vote only.
4. An elector votes for a candidate by placing an X to the right of the candidate’s name thus

1. JAMES, JOHN PETER	(Insert photo of candidate)	(Insert symbol of party/candidate)	X
2.ROBINSON PETER FREDERICK	(Insert photo of candidate)	(Insert symbol of party/candidate)

5. If an elector marks the ballot paper in any way that will identify the elector the ballot paper will be rejected.
6. After voting, an elector must fold the ballot paper along the line shown on the ballot paper and hand the folded ballot paper to the presiding officer.
7. The presiding officer will, in the full view of those present including the elector, remove the counterfoil from the ballot paper and return the ballot paper to the elector who will deposit the ballot paper in the ballot box; except that where the elector is unable from physical or other disability to deposit the ballot paper in the ballot box, the presiding officer will, on the elector’s behalf, deposit the ballot paper in the ballot box
8. If an elector inadvertently spoils a ballot paper he or she can obtain another one by returning the spoilt one to the presiding officer.

9. A person given a ballot paper must not take it from the polling station.

10. After voting an elector must leave the polling station.
