A BILL FOR A LAW TO AMEND THE NATIONAL PENSIONS LAW (2012 REVISION) TO INCREASE THE REQUIREMENTS FOR THE EDUCATION OF MEMBERS; TO ESTABLISH THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOUR AND PENSIONS; TO ESTABLISH THE NORMAL AGE OF PENSION ENTITLEMENT AND TO IMPROVE COMPLIANCE; AND FOR INCIDENTAL AND CONNECTED PURPOSES

THE NATIONAL PENSIONS (AMENDMENT) BILL, 2016

MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

This Bill would impose new requirements for pension plans to educate and inform members, increase the normal age of pension entitlement, improve compliance with obligations under the National Pensions Law (2012 Revision) (the “principal Law”) and provide for incidental and connected purposes.

Clause 1 of the Bill sets out the short title and commencement.

Clause 2 of the Bill amends the entire principal Law so that the word “Superintendent” is deleted and substituted with the word “Director” with the exception of section 3 which makes provision for the definition of words used in the principal Law.

Clause 3 of the Bill amends section 3 of the principal Law by changing the meaning of the word “employee” so that it has the same meaning as that provided in the Labour Law (2011 Revision). This clause also -

- (a) changes the definitions of the words “year’s maximum pensionable earnings” and “regulations”;
- (b) deletes the definitions for the words “Governor” and “Superintendent”; and
- (c) inserts definitions for the words “custodian”, “Director”, “investment manager” and “normal age of pension entitlement”.

Clause 4 of the Bill amends section 4 of the principal Law which makes provision for the establishment of pension plans and creates an obligation for the Director to publish notice of pension plans registered under the principal Law.

Clause 5 of the Bill amends section 5 of the principal Law by replacing the word “Governor” with the word “Cabinet” thereby enabling the Cabinet to make regulations relating to certain matters.

Clause 6 of the Bill amends section 6 of the principal Law which prohibits the administration of an unregistered pension plan and increases the penalty for the contravention of the provisions.

Clause 7 of the Bill amends section 7 of the principal Law which prohibits the administration of a pension plan for which registration has been refused or revoked by the Director and increases the penalty for the contravention of the provisions.

Clause 8 of the Bill amends section 8 of the principal Law which sets out the criteria to be satisfied for a person who administers a pension plan and imposes a penalty for the contravention of the provisions.

Clause 9 of the Bill amends section 9 of the principal Law which sets out the requirements for registration under the Law. This clause amends subsection (2) which prescribes the documents that should accompany an application for registration under the principal Law.

Clause 10 of the Bill amends section 12 of the principal Law by replacing the word “Governor” with the word “Cabinet” to enable the Cabinet to make regulations.

Clause 11 of the Bill repeals and substitutes section 16 of the Law which sets out the duties of the administrator. This clause further details the duties of the administrator under the Law.

Clause 12 of the Bill inserts section 16A into the principal Law which details the functions of the administrator.

Clause 13 of the Bill amends section 17 of the principal Law which combined the requirements of the administrator to exercise diligence care and skill. Section 17 also dealt with some of the duties and functions of the administrator. The provisions dealing with duties and functions of the administrator were removed from section 17 and placed in the appropriate sections.

Clause 14 of the Bill inserts section 18A into the principal Law which sets out the obligations of the employer.

Clause 15 of the Bill repeals and substitutes section 20 of the principal Law which sets out what information is to be provided by the administrator and further details the information requirements.

Clause 16 of the Bill repeals and substitutes section 22 of the principal Law which details what is to be submitted in quarterly statements of pension benefits. Statements were to be provided pursuant to the previous provisions on an annual basis.

Clause 17 of the Bill amends section 23 of the principal Law and further details the provisions relating to the inspection of the documents of an administrator of a pension plan. This clause increases the frequency of access of information from once a year to every six months.

Clause 18 of the Bill amends section 25 of the principal Law which makes provision for the eligibility for membership of a pension plan. This clause changes the upper limit on the age for eligibility from sixty years to what will now be referred to as the normal age of pension entitlement.

Clause 19 of the Bill repeals and substitutes section 26 of the principal Law which makes provisions relating to the date upon which a member of a pension plan is entitled to receive benefits under that plan. This clause changes the age of entitlement from sixty years to the normal age of pension entitlement.

Clauses 20 and 21 amend sections 27 and 28 respectively so that “normal retirement date” becomes the “normal pension entitlement date”.

Clause 22 amends section 30 of the principal Law by changing the maximum requirement for membership from forty-two years to forty-seven years and by correcting an incorrect cross-reference made to section 47(9) which should have been to section 47(8).

Clause 23 of the Bill amends section 33 of the principal Law which makes provision for early retirement options. This clause makes provision for a member to continue to receive pension benefits even if the member resumes employment after retirement. The clause also provides that if a member resumes employment, the member is required to continue to make contributions to the member’s pension plan.

Clause 24 of the Bill repeals and substitutes section 34 of the principal Law which makes provision for transfer of member’s benefits from one pension plan to another. This amendment further details the manner in which a transfer may be effected.

Clause 25 of the Bill amends section 39 of the principal Law which makes provision for pre-retirement death benefits. The clause changes the age upon which a spouse becomes entitled to benefits.

Clauses 26 and 27 amend sections 41 and 43 respectively so that “normal retirement date” becomes the “normal pension entitlement date”.

Clause 28 of the Bill amends section 47 of the principal Law which makes provisions relating to the rates of member’s contributions under a pension plan and imposes a penalty for contravention of the section. This clause also allows members to access their additional voluntary contributions and sets out the criteria for which funds will be permitted to be withdrawn.

Clause 29 of the Bill repeals and substitutes section 48 of the principal Law which deals with the manner in which arrears in contributions to a pension plan are to be dealt with and further details the manner in which the process is to be managed. This clause also protects confidential information disclosed to the Director for the purpose of settling arrears.

Clause 30 of the Bill repeals and substitutes section 50 of the principal Law. This clause makes provision for the manner in which interest is to be paid by an employer.

Clauses 31, 32 and 33 amend sections 52B, 52C and 52D respectively so that “normal retirement age” becomes the “normal age of pension entitlement”.

Clause 34 of the Bill repeals and substitutes section 53 of the principal Law which sets out the manner in which refunds are to be made to members of a pension plan.

Clause 35 of the Bill amends section 69 of the principal Law and imposes a penalty for contravention of the provisions.

Clause 36 of the Bill amends section 74 of the principal Law by replacing the word “Governor” with the word “Cabinet” thereby enabling Cabinet to make regulations with respect to the practice and procedure of the Board.

Clause 37 of the Bill amends section 78 of the principal Law by replacing the word “Governor” with the word “Cabinet” thereby enabling Cabinet to make regulations with respect to -

- (a) the tenure of members and vacation of office by members of the Board; and
- (b) the appointment of staff to assist the Board in carrying out the business of the Board.

Clause 38 of the Bill amends section 79 so as to establish the Department of Labour and Pensions.

Clause 39 of the Bill inserts section 79A which makes provision for the powers of the Director, Deputy Director and officers with respect to administrative penalties.

Clause 40 of the Bill repeals section 80(a) and removes the authority to administer the Law and Regulations from the duties of the Board.

Clause 41 of the Bill amends section 81 of the principal Law and increases the fine in the prescribed penalty.

Clause 42 of the Bill amends section 82 of the principal Law and increases the fines in the prescribed penalties.

Clause 43 of the Bill amends section 85 of the principal Law by replacing the word “Governor” with the word “Cabinet” so that the annual report by the Minister will now be submitted to Cabinet.

Clause 44 of the Bill amends section 87 of the principal Law by substituting the words “business premises” for the word “workplaces” and inserting a definition for the word “workplaces”.

Clause 45 of the Bill amends section 88 of the principal Law and increases the fines in the prescribed penalties.

Clause 46 of the Bill amends section 90 of the principal Law and increases the fines in the prescribed penalties.

Clause 47 of the Bill inserts section 90A into the principal Law which makes provision for the manner in which offences committed by bodies corporate are to be managed.

Clause 48 of the Bill amends section 94 of the principal Law and permits the Director to share information with other Government agencies.

Clause 49 of the Bill inserts section 94A into the principal Law which makes provision for the protection of an employee from victimization from an employer.

Clause 50 of the Bill amends section 95 of the principal Law by replacing the word “Governor” with the word “Cabinet” to empower Cabinet to make general regulations. It also makes provision for an administrative penalty regime to be established in Regulations to the principal Law.

Clause 51 of the Bill inserts section 95A which permits the Director or the administrator of a pension plan to provide verification of compliance with the principal Law upon request.

- (k) the period over which contributions were made;
- (l) the dates on which the contributions were made; and
- (m) any interest payments made in the name of the pension plan.

(5) The contributions shall be stated clearly and there shall be no comingling; that is, contributions shall be differentiated from other payments that employers are required to pay, such as health insurance.

(6) An employer shall retain records required to be kept under subsection (4) for a minimum period of five years from the date on which they are prepared.

(7) An employer shall maintain a written notification, acknowledged by the employee in writing, of the pension plan referred to in section 4(1).

- (8) An employer who -
- (a) knowingly and wilfully contravenes subsections (1) or (3); or
 - (b) fails without reasonable cause to comply with subsections (4), (5), (6) or (7), commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars.”.

15. The principal Law is amended by repealing section 20 and substituting the following -

Repeal and substitution of section 20 - information from administrator

“Information from administrator

20. (1) An administrator shall provide, in writing, to each person who under this Law is required to become a member of a pension plan, immediately upon the person’s application for membership in the pension plan -

- (a) an explanation of the provisions of the pension plan that apply to the person;
- (b) an explanation of the person’s rights and obligations under the pension plan;
- (c) details of the returns and expense ratios of the pension fund in the prescribed format; and
- (d) any other information prescribed.

(2) An employer shall, as soon as is reasonably practicable, provide to an administrator the information required to enable the administrator to comply with this section.”.

16. The principal Law is amended by repealing section 22 and substituting the following section -

Repeal and substitution of section 22 - annual statement of pension benefits

“Semi-annual statement of pension benefits

22. (1) An administrator shall on a semi-annual basis, or at the shorter period as may be specified in a pension plan, give to each member a written statement setting out -

- (a) the prescribed information in respect of the pension plan which shall cover the pension plan’s operations since the last report or since registration in the first instance;
- (b) in the case of a pension plan that is a defined benefit pension plan, the member’s expected pension benefits as at the member's normal pension entitlement date or, in the case of a pension plan that is a defined contribution pension plan, the amount of money standing in the member's account; and

- (c) any ancillary benefits for which the member is eligible.

(2) Notwithstanding the requirement for a written statement under subsection (1), a statement may be forwarded to a member electronically or via any other media upon the consent of the member in writing to accept transmission of the statement in that manner.

(3) An administrator shall, where a member terminates employment with an employer or otherwise ceases to be a member of a plan, give to that member or any other person who is, as a result, entitled to a benefit under the pension plan, a written statement setting out the prescribed information in respect of the benefits, rights and obligations of the member or the other person.

(4) Subsection (3) applies in respect of a multi-employer pension plan where a member ceases to be a member but does not apply where a member terminates employment with an employer but continues to be a member.”.

“Transfer

34. (1) A member of a pension plan who, on or after 1st June, 1998, terminates employment with a specific employer and who is entitled to a deferred benefit -

- (a) may request the administrator to pay an amount equal to the commuted value of the deferred benefit or the balance in the member's defined contribution account -
 - (i) to another registered pension plan, if the administrator of the other pension plan agrees to accept the payment;
 - (ii) into a prescribed pension entitlement savings arrangement; or
 - (iii) for the purchase for the member of a life annuity that will not commence before the earliest date on which the member would have been entitled to receive payment of pension benefits under the pension plan;
- (b) may elect to remain in the pension plan; or
- (c) may elect to transfer that deferred benefit to a plan administered under the Public Service Pensions Law (2013 Revision) if the administrator of the Public Service Pensions Board agrees to accept the payment.

(2013 Revision)

(2) The pension entitlement under subsection (1) is subject to the prescribed limitations in respect of the transfer of funds from pension funds.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where -

- (a) a member's employment is terminated;
- (b) the member ceases to reside in the Islands; and
- (c) no contributions have been made to a pension plan by or on behalf of the member for a period of two years or more, the member may request the administrator to pay an amount equal to the commuted value of the deferred benefit or the balance in the member's defined contribution account to a pension plan, pension entitlement savings arrangement or life annuity that is outside of the Islands.

(4) The requirements under subsection (3) are not applicable to transfers between registered pension plans.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (3), a person is considered no longer resident in the Islands if that person has been absent from the Islands for a period of two years or more, and, in calculating a period of absence, no account shall be taken of a period of residence in the Islands for an aggregate period of less than three months.

(6) Subject to subsections (1) and (3), an administrator may, on making a payment or transfer under section 42, 53 or this section, make a deduction from that payment or transfer, subject to a prescribed maximum fee, exclusive of any transfer fees charged by the pension plan's bankers, in respect of actual and ascertainable administrative expenses incurred in making the payment or transfer that is -

- (a) provided for in the pension plan to be made in respect of all transfers and withdrawals; and
- (b) approved by the Director, and the Director shall not approve a provision in a pension plan that purports to enable different levels of deduction to be made in respect of different classes of members.

(7) A former member may exercise that member's pension entitlement under subsections (1) and (3) by delivering to the administrator within the prescribed period of time a direction in a form supplied by the Director.

(8) Subject to compliance with the requirements of this section and the Regulations, the administrator shall comply with the direction referred to in subsection (7) not later than forty-five days after the date of delivery of the direction.

(9) An administrator who contravenes subsection (8) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of twenty thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of two years, or to both; and if the offence is a continuing one to a fine of one thousand dollars for every day or part of a day during which the offence has continued.

(10) The administrator shall not make a payment under -

- (a) subsection (1)(a), unless the pension entitlement savings arrangement is in accordance with the prescribed requirements; and
- (b) subsection (1)(b), unless the contract to purchase the deferred life annuity is in accordance with the prescribed requirements.

(11) Where a payment does not meet the limitations prescribed in relation to the transfer of funds from pension funds, the administrator shall not make the payment without the approval of the Director.

(12) The Director may, by Order, approve a payment under subsection (11) subject to the terms and conditions contained in the Order that the Director thinks fit in the circumstances.

(13) Where -

- (a) a payment that does not meet the conditions prescribed in relation to the transfer of the funds from pension funds is made without the approval of the Director; or
- (b) there is a failure to comply with a term or condition of the approval given under subsection (12), the Director may, by Order, require any person to whom payment has been made to repay an amount equal to the amount paid together with interest on the amount.

(14) This section does not apply in respect of benefits under a pension plan accrued on or before a prescribed date where those benefits are guaranteed by an approved provider and the guarantee was given by the approved provider on or before that date.

(15) Subject to section 76, an Order for payment under subsection (12) may be enforced in the same manner as a judgment of the Grand Court for the payment of money.

(16) An administrator is discharged from all responsibilities and liabilities in respect of a payment made in good faith under this section and in compliance with this Law.”.

(13) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of twenty thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of two years, or to both."

Repeal and substitution of section 48 - notice to superintendent of arrears of contributions

29. The principal Law is amended by repealing section 48 and substituting the following section -

“Notice to Director of arrears of contributions

48. (1) A member and the member’s employer shall contribute to the pension fund of a pension plan on behalf of that member from the date that the member is required by this Law to participate in the pension plan and at the rates specified in section 47(3).

(2) Contributions shall be remitted to employees’ pension plans on or before the 15th day of the month next following any month in which the employee performs services for the employer, for which the employee receives or expects to receive remuneration, regardless of the employee’s established pay period, and this date shall be known as the “contribution date deadline.”

(3) A contribution not received by the close of business on the contribution date deadline is considered a delinquent contribution.

(4) An administrator shall immediately take action to collect a delinquent contribution which for the purposes of this subsection includes interest accrued on the delinquent contribution.

(5) A delinquent contribution not received by the administrator by the 15th day of the month next following the contribution date deadline, in this section referred to as the “reportable date”, shall be reported in writing by the administrator to the Director in the form approved by the Director.

(6) An administrator shall notify -

- (a) the Director in writing on or before the 20th day of the month next following the month of the contribution date deadline, in this section referred to as “the delinquent notification date”, of any delinquent contributions not received by the reportable date and still outstanding at the date of reporting; and
- (b) the affected employees in writing within sixty days of the date on which the Director is notified under paragraph (a) of the delinquent contributions reported under paragraph (a) and the administrator may publish the names of employers whose delinquent contributions have not been received by the delinquent notification date.

(7) The Director, if the Director considers it necessary, may instruct an administrator in writing, to publish in another publication that the Director shall identify, in addition to the publication under subsection (6)(b), the names of employers for whom contributions have not been received by the delinquent notification date.

(8) Notwithstanding the requirement for written notification under subsection (6)(b), notification may be forwarded to an affected employee electronically or via any other media upon the consent of the employee in writing, to accept transmission of notification in that manner.

(9) The Director shall, no later than the 20th day of the month next following the delinquent notification date, initiate an action to recover the payment of the delinquent contributions by one or more of the following means -

- (a) by letter of demand to the employer, stating a time within fourteen days of the date of the letter of demand that the contribution shall be paid into the pension plan, and outlining the action that will be taken if the contribution is not forthcoming within the specified time;
- (b) by letter demanding the appearance of the delinquent employer before the Director for the purpose of explaining the delinquency, disclosing the employer's banking arrangements, delinquent contributions and payroll records and arriving at an acceptable payment plan, but only if the Director is of the opinion that the delinquency can be rectified and that the employer is acting in good faith;

- (c) by ordering the payment of a delinquency collection fee equal to the greater of ten per cent of the total amount delinquent or fifty dollars per day, from the contribution date deadline until the total amount of delinquent contributions is paid;
- (d) by commencing legal proceedings in a court of competent jurisdiction to recover the delinquent contributions, any fines and fees arising pursuant to this Law, except that no action is necessary for one or more of the following reasons -
 - (i) where the delinquency was reported in error;
 - (ii) where the delinquency has been corrected by full payment; or
 - (iii) where any action has been taken in resolution of the delinquency consistent with this Law; or
- (e) by publishing breaches of the Law by employers and such publications shall include the name of the employer, the offence under the Law which was contravened and the applicable penalty.

(10) Any information disclosed to the Director pursuant to subsection (9)(b) shall be used solely for the purposes of pension arrears recovery and shall otherwise be kept confidential.

(11) Any expenses of the administrator for the additional reporting for the purposes of subsection (6), which shall be approved in advance either generally or specifically by the Director, or any expenses authorized pursuant to this Law to be made by the Director for the actions pursuant to subsection (7) or (9), shall be borne by the employer concerned and not by the pension plan in general or the employees.

(12) An employer who fails to pay contributions into a pension plan within the specified time given by the Director shall, in addition to the delinquent contributions and the fee and expenses levied pursuant to subsection (9)(c) and (11), be liable on summary conviction to a fine of twenty thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of two years, or to both.

(13) The Director may -

- (a) investigate the relevant activities of employers in respect of contributions to pension plans; and
- (b) share information pursuant to an investigation under paragraph (a) regarding employers with other Government departments and agencies.

(14) Where pursuant to legal proceedings commenced under subsection (9)(d) funds are restrained for the payment of delinquent contributions to a pension plan, the court shall not make an Order to allow for the payment of costs, legal and other expenses out of the funds.

(15) Where an employee reasonably believes that an employer has failed to remit contributions to the administrator by the reportable date, the employee may in writing report the employer to the Director and the Director may, after making investigations in accordance with subsection (13), take any action referred to in subsection (9).”.
