 - (i) consecutive terms of imprisonment;
 - (ii) terms of imprisonment which are wholly or partly concurrent, and which were imposed in respect of offences of which a person was convicted in the same proceedings;
- (b) no account shall be taken of any subsequent variation of a term originally imposed by a court in dealing with a person in respect of a suspended sentence of imprisonment; and
- (c) a sentence imposed by a court outside the Islands which is substantially the same as a sentence of any description mentioned in this Law shall be treated as being the same as a sentence described in this Law.

3. This Law binds the Crown.

Law binds the Crown

4. The primary object of this Law is to implement a scheme to limit the effect of a person's conviction for a range of offences if the person, having served that person's sentence, subsequently completes a period of crime-free behaviour and on completion of that period, the conviction shall be regarded as spent and, subject to some exceptions, a person is eligible to apply for the expungement of that criminal record.

Object of this Law

PART 2 - EXPUNGEMENT BOARD

5. (1) There is established for the purposes of this Law a body to be known as the Expungement Board.

Expungement Board established

(2) The provisions of Schedule 1 shall have effect as to the constitution of the Board and otherwise in relation to the Board.

Schedule 1

6. (1) The functions of the Board are to -

Functions of the Board

- (a) receive, consider, review and determine applications for the expungement from the criminal records of spent convictions;
- (b) consider representations made to it by or on behalf of persons who apply to the Board for the expungement of criminal records;
- (c) advise the Governor on policy and strategic matters;

- (d) submit reports to the Governor, at intervals required by the Governor, on the discharge of the Board's functions; and
- (e) carry out other functions assigned by the Governor.

(2) The Board shall have the power to approve, disapprove or revoke the expungement of a criminal record, and this power shall be exercised in a manner that is lawful, rational, proportionate and procedurally fair.

(3) The Governor may give the Board policy directions relating to applications for expunging records, including related inquiries and proceedings and the Board shall ensure that the policies are brought to the attention of the public.

(4) A hearing by the Board shall be in private and may be conducted without the applicant appearing unless the Board sees it fit to hear the applicant in person.

PART 3 - EXPUNGEMENT OF CONVICTIONS

Criteria for expunging a criminal record

7. The following findings or orders of a court shall be treated as convictions for the purposes of this Law -
- Findings and orders considered to be convictions
- (a) a finding that an offence has been proved, or that a person is guilty of an offence, and the discharging of, or the making of an order releasing, the person conditionally on entering into a recognisance to be of good behaviour for a specified period or on other conditions determined by the court; and
 - (b) in the case of the juvenile court an order other than an order dismissing a charge.
8. (1) This Law shall apply to a conviction for an offence against laws other than the Laws of the Cayman Islands and a reference in this Law to an offence, conviction and court includes a reference to an offence, conviction and court of a place other than the Islands which correspond, or which correspond as closely as possible, to the relevant offence, conviction and court of the Islands.
- Convictions imposed or expunged in other countries
- (2) Where a person's conviction was expunged in another country for a conviction in that country, that person is entitled to protection under this Law as if the offence had been committed in the Islands and the conviction expunged under this Law.
- (3) A prisoner who is Caymanian and has been convicted of an offence in another country and who is transferred to the Islands to serve that prisoner's sentence, or the rest of that sentence, shall be entitled to expungement as if that offence had been committed in the Islands in accordance with the criteria set out in this Law.
- (4) For the purposes of this Law, the offence that a transferred prisoner has been found guilty of, is deemed to be a "Category A offence" under section 23 of the Penal Code (2018 Revision).
- 2018 Revision
9. (1) Where a person has been declared a prohibited immigrant in the Islands on the basis of a criminal offence committed outside the Islands and the person's criminal record is expunged in the country in which the conviction took place, that expungement shall be recognised under this Law as if it had been given by the Board in respect of an offence committed in the Islands.
- Convictions of prohibited immigrants

2015 Revision (2) Where a person's criminal record has been expunged in circumstances described in subsection (1), that person may, subject to the provisions of the Immigration Law (2015 Revision), re-enter the Islands to live or visit.

Convictions of deportees 10. (1) Where a person is deported from the Islands following a conviction, that person may apply to the Board for expungement of that person's criminal record if it is shown that that person has lived the relevant crime-free period in the country in which that person has lived since being deported.

2015 Revision (2) Where a person's criminal record has been expunged in circumstances described in subsection (1), that person may, subject to the provisions of the Immigration Law (2015 Revision), re-enter the Islands to live or visit.

Convictions before the commencement of Law 42 of 2016 11. A person who has been convicted before the 1st February, 2018, the date of the coming into force of the Criminal Records (Spent Convictions) Law, 2016, and has not completed the crime-free period under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Law (1998 Revision) -

1998 Revision

- (a) may apply; or
- (b) if the application was pending, may reapply, for an expungement of a criminal record under this Law as if the conviction took place when this Law was in force.

Convictions that cannot be expunged Schedule 2

12. (1) The following convictions cannot be expunged -

- (a) a conviction for an offence specified in Schedule 2;
- (b) a conviction resulting in a sentence of imprisonment for life;
- (c) a conviction resulting in a term exceeding five years, subject to the power in section 16(1)(c);
- (d) a conviction against a corporate body;
- (e) a conviction resulting in a sentence of detention during the court's pleasure; and
- (f) a conviction for an offence described in paragraph (c), regardless of the sentence imposed where the person convicted is not under seventeen years old and it is a first offence.

(2) The Cabinet may by Order amend Schedule 2 to -

- (a) add or delete categories; or
- (b) impose exceptions or conditions.

(3) An Order made pursuant to section (2) shall be subject to affirmative resolution of the Legislative Assembly.

(4) Where a sentence that is eligible for expungement is reduced by an exercise of a prerogative power, privilege or the court's pleasure, the reduced sentence shall, for the purposes of determining the crime-free period, be treated as if it was the sentence imposed by the court.

13. (1) Where a person makes an application for expungement of a criminal record and that person is alleged to have committed a new offence, the Board may, on terms and conditions it thinks fit, and in exceptional circumstances, approve the expungement of the record.

Pending charges

(2) The Board shall, in exercising the Board's power under subsection (1), take into account the following -

- (a) the nature of the offence for which suspension is being sought and the nature of the new offence;
- (b) the provisions of this Law in relation to the period during which the new offence can be suspended;
- (c) the length of time it has taken without the charge for the new offence being disposed of; and
- (d) any other factor the Board considers relevant.

(3) A person who applies for expungement shall disclose to the Board any allegations in relation to that person of the commission of a new offence and, if that person fails to disclose those allegations in relation to a new offence, that person commits an offence and is liable upon conviction to a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars.

(4) In this section "new offence" means an offence for which a person seeking expungement of an earlier offence is charged or in respect of which that person is named by the police as a suspect in the Islands or elsewhere.

14. (1) A person convicted of any of the following offences -

Minor offences relating to marijuana

- (a) possession not involving an aggravating factor such as trafficking or intent to supply;
- (b) possession of pipes or other utensils for the consumption of marijuana; or
- (c) smoking or other unlawful use of marijuana, or a similar offence under a Law, before 1st February, 2018, the date of the coming into force of the Criminal Records (Spent Conviction) Law, 2016, may apply to the Board for an expungement of that person's criminal record under this Law.

Law 42 of 2016

(2) Where a person is convicted of any of the offences referred to in subsection (1), after the 1st February, 2018, the date of the coming into force of Law 42 of 2016 the Criminal Records (Spent Conviction) Law, 2016, that person may apply to the Board for an expungement if the sentence is non-custodial and, if a fine is imposed, where that fine does not exceed five thousand dollars.

(3) The Cabinet may -

- (a) by Order amend this section; and
- (b) make regulations relating to the administration of this section.

(4) An Order made pursuant to section (3)(a) shall be subject to affirmative resolution of the Legislative Assembly.

Procedures for expunging criminal records

Automatic expungement

15. Where a person has been convicted of an offence and has been sentenced for a period not exceeding five years, upon the expiration of the prescribed crime-free period, that person's criminal record shall be treated as expunged.

Application for expungement

15A.(1) Where a person has been convicted of an offence and has been sentenced for a period exceeding five years, upon the expiration of the prescribed crime-free period, that person may apply to the Board for that person's criminal record to be expunged.

(2) An application for expungement shall be made in the prescribed manner and accompanied by the prescribed fee."

Inquiries by Board

16. (1) On receipt of an application for an expungement of a criminal record, the Board -

- (a) shall cause inquiries to be made to ascertain whether the applicant is eligible to make the application;
- (b) shall, if the applicant is eligible, cause inquiries to be made to ascertain whether section 13 applies; and
- (c) may, in the case of an offence referred to in Schedule 3, item 2, cause inquiries to be made with respect to factors which are relevant to determining whether approving an expungement of a criminal record would bring the administration of justice into disrepute.

Schedule 3

(2) Without limiting the generality of the power in subsection (1)(c), Cabinet may make regulations as to what factors may be taken into account for purposes of determining whether the expungement of a criminal record would bring the administration of justice into disrepute.

Representations

17. (1) If the Board proposes to deny an application for expungement of a criminal record, the Board shall notify the applicant in writing and advise the applicant that the applicant may make, or have made on the applicant's behalf, representation to the Board, either in writing within twenty-one days from the date of the notice or, with the Board's authorisation, orally at a hearing held for that purpose.

(2) The Board shall, before making its decision, consider any representations made to it by the applicant or on the applicant's behalf.

18. For the purposes of this Law, a reference to the expiration according to law of a sentence of imprisonment imposed for an offence shall be read as a reference to the day on which the sentence expires, without taking into account -

Computing date of expiration of sentence

- (a) any period during which the person could be entitled to statutory release or any period following a statutory release date;
- (b) any remission that stands to the credit of the person in respect of the offence; or
- (c) an earlier date of release due to parole.

19. Where an application has been denied, the applicant may not re-apply until the expiration of one year after the day on which the Board refused to approve the expungement of the criminal record.

Re-applying

General

20. (1) A conviction shall be spent on completion of the relevant crime-free period, except as provided by this section.

Spent convictions

(2) A conviction shall not be spent unless the person has served or otherwise fully complied with the sentence imposed in respect of that conviction.

(3) A finding that an offence has been proved, or that a person is guilty of an offence, without proceeding to a conviction, shall not be considered a conviction.

(4) An order of a juvenile court dismissing a charge and administering a caution shall not to be considered a conviction.

(5) A finding that an offence has been proved, or that a person is guilty of an offence, and -

- (a) the discharging of, or the making of an order releasing, the person conditionally -
 - (i) on entering into a good behaviour bond for a specified period;
 - (ii) on participating in an intervention program; or
 - (iii) on other conditions determined by the court; or
- (b) the releasing of that person on probation on conditions determined by the court, for such period of time as it thinks fit, shall be treated as spent on the satisfactory completion of the period or the satisfactory compliance with the program (including any intervention plan arising out of the program) or conditions, as the case may require.

(6) A conviction for an offence which has ceased, by operation of law, to be an offence shall be immediately spent when that offence -

- (a) ceases to be an offence; and
- (b) is prescribed by Regulations made by Cabinet to be an offence to which this subsection applies.

(7) A conviction which is expunged shall not be revived by a subsequent conviction.

(8) A reference in subsection (5)(a)(i) to a good behaviour bond includes a reference to a recognisance to be of good behaviour made before the commencement of the Alternative Sentencing Law (2008 Revision).

2008 Revision

Crime-free period for convictions of courts (other than a juvenile court)

21. (1) The crime-free period (in the case of an order of a court other than an order of a juvenile court) means the period after a sentence is served during which the person has not been -

- (a) convicted of an offence punishable by imprisonment;
- (b) in prison because of a conviction for an offence; and
- (c) unlawfully at large.

(2) The crime-free period may commence before the date of the commencement of this Law.

Crime free period for orders of a juvenile court

22. (1) The crime-free period (in the case of an order of the juvenile court) is the period after the date of the order during which the person has not been -

- (a) subject to a control order;
- (b) convicted of an offence punishable by imprisonment;
- (c) in prison because of a conviction for an offence; and
- (d) unlawfully at large.

(2) The crime-free period may commence before the date of the commencement of this Law.

Convictions in relation to traffic offences

23. (1) A conviction for a traffic offence and any period of imprisonment imposed as a consequence of such a conviction shall be disregarded in calculating the crime-free period for a conviction for a non-traffic offence and a conviction for a traffic offence is of relevance only in calculating the crime-free period for a conviction for an earlier traffic offence.

(2) A conviction for a non-traffic offence and any period of imprisonment imposed as a consequence of such a conviction shall be disregarded in calculating the crime-free period for a conviction for a traffic offence and a conviction for a non-traffic offence is of relevance only in calculating the crime-free period for an earlier non-traffic offence.

(3) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2), regard shall be had to a conviction for an offence resulting in -

- (a) death; or
- (b) bodily harm,

in calculating the crime-free period for any conviction (whether for a traffic offence or a non-traffic offence) and a conviction for any of those shall be of relevance in determining the crime-free period for any earlier offence.

(4) In this section, traffic offence means an offence arising out of the use of a motor vehicle or trailer within the meaning of the Traffic Law, 2011 and non-traffic offence means any other offence.

Law 26 of 2011

24. The crime-free period in relation to a sentence specified in the first column of Schedule 3 shall be the period specified in the second column thereof; the period being reckoned from the date of the expiration of the sentence as defined in section 18.

Applicable crime-free period
Schedule 3

25. Where a person has been convicted of multiple offences and the sentence imposed in respect of the convictions (whether or not in the same proceedings) differ, the crime-free period in relation to those convictions shall be determined by the longer or the longest of those sentences.

Crime-free period in relation to multiple sentences

PART 4 - EFFECT OF EXPUNGEMENT

26. A person shall, where the criminal record of that person has been expunged, be treated, for all purposes in law, as a person who has not -

Effect of expungement of a criminal record in general

- (a) committed;
- (b) been charged with;
- (c) been prosecuted for;
- (d) been convicted of; or
- (e) been sentenced for, the offence which was the subject of that criminal record.

27. (1) Notwithstanding any other written or unwritten law -

Effect of expungement in judicial proceedings

- (a) no evidence shall be admissible in proceedings before a judicial authority to prove that a person has -
 - (i) committed;
 - (ii) been charged with;
 - (iii) been prosecuted for;
 - (iv) been convicted of; or
 - (v) been sentenced for,the offence which was the subject of an expunged criminal record; and
- (b) a person shall not, in any proceedings, be asked and, if asked, may answer in the negative any question relating to the person's criminal record which cannot be answered without acknowledging or referring to a conviction which forms the basis of an expunged criminal record or any ancillary circumstances.

(2) If, in judicial proceedings the judicial authority is satisfied that justice cannot be done except by requiring or admitting evidence relating to a person's expunged criminal record or to ancillary circumstances to it, that authority may -

- (a) require or admit the evidence in question, but a court before which such evidence is admitted shall, in appropriate circumstances, take reasonable steps to prevent or minimise publication of that evidence; and
- (b) determine any issue to which the evidence relates.

(3) In the performance of its functions, the Department of Community Rehabilitation shall be entitled to have access to the criminal record.

Effect of expungement in non-judicial proceedings

28. Where a question arises in a non-judicial proceeding with respect to a person's criminal history, the person-

- (a) may answer in the negative; and
- (b) shall not be subjected to any liability or otherwise prejudiced in law by reason of any failure, in the answer, to acknowledge or disclose an expunged criminal record or ancillary circumstances.

Effect of expungement on laws, agreements and arrangements.

29. Notwithstanding section 33, a disclosure obligation imposed on a person by a rule of law or by the provisions of an agreement or arrangement shall not extend to requiring that person to disclose an expunged criminal record or ancillary circumstances.

Effect of expungement in relation to disqualification pursuant to section 62(1)(e) of the Constitution UKSI 1379 of 2009

30. For the avoidance of doubt, the provisions of this Part shall not operate to prevent a person from being disqualified to be elected as a member of the Legislative Assembly pursuant to section 62(1)(e) of Schedule 2 of the Cayman Islands Constitution Order, 2009.

31. The law of defamation applies to an expunged criminal record as if the person had never committed the offence but shall not protect a person if the publication complained of took place before the conviction was expunged. Defamation actions
32. Nothing in this Law affects the right of Her Majesty, by virtue of Her Royal Prerogative or otherwise, to grant a free pardon, to quash a conviction or sentence, to commute a sentence or to expunge a criminal record. Saving the Royal Prerogative

 - (c) become engaged in a business of the type specified in Part 3 of Schedule 4; or
 - (d) be elected as a member of the Legislative Assembly.
- (2) A disclosure of particulars of an expunged criminal record under subsection (1) shall be made -
- (a) to a person authorised by the -
 - (i) professional body concerned; or
 - (ii) organisation responsible for the office of employment;
 - (b) in relation to a business, to -
 - (i) the chief operating officer of the business; or
 - (ii) a person ostensibly authorised to receive the disclosure;
 - (c) a person designated by regulations made by Cabinet for the purpose; or
 - (d) to the Supervisor of Elections.
- (3) The Cabinet may by Order amend Schedule 4 by -
- (a) add or delete categories; or
 - (b) impose exceptions or conditions.
- (4) An Order made pursuant to section (3) shall be subject to affirmative resolution of the Legislative Assembly.

(5) The particulars of an expunged criminal record disclosed to an authorised person under this section may be published or communicated on the following conditions -

- (a) the publication or communication shall be in accordance with rules applying to the professional body, office of employment or business; and
- (b) the general disclosure or publication of the particulars of the expunged criminal record shall be to authorised persons.

Failure to disclose expunged criminal record where disclosure required

34. (1) Where a person who is required to disclose the particulars of an expunged conviction under section 33 fails to do so, that person commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars.

(2) A person shall not be convicted of an offence under this section unless the court is satisfied that a benefit was conferred on that person and that such benefit would not have accrued if the person had not committed the act alleged to constitute the offence.

Unauthorised disclosure of expunged criminal record

35. (1) A person -

- (a) who, in the course of official duties, has or has had custody of or access to information constituting part of a criminal record; or
- (b) who, knowing or having reasonable cause to suspect that any such information was obtained in the course of the official duties, discloses that information to any other person, commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars.

(2) In proceedings for an offence under subsection (1) it is a defence for the accused person to show that the disclosure was made to -

- (a) the person whose criminal record has been expunged or to another person at the express written request of the person whose criminal record has been expunged;
- (b) a person whom the accused reasonably believed to be the person whose criminal record has been expunged; or
- (c) another person at the express written request of a person whom the accused reasonably believed to be the person whose criminal record had been expunged.

(3) A person who obtains any information from an expunged criminal record by means of fraud, dishonesty or a bribe commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of six months, or to both.

PART 6 - CUSTODY AND MANAGEMENT OF EXPUNGED CRIMINAL RECORDS

Custody and protection of records

36. (1) The Governor may, by direction in writing addressed to a person having the custody or control of a judicial record of a conviction for which an expungement has been approved, require that person to deliver that judicial record into the Commissioner's custody.

Keeping and protection of expunged criminal records

(2) A judicial record of a conviction for which an expungement has been approved that is in the custody of the Commissioner or of any department or agency of the Government of the Islands shall be kept separate from other criminal records and that judicial record shall not be disclosed to any person, nor may the existence of the judicial record or the fact of the conviction be disclosed to any person, without the prior approval of the Governor.

(3) The Governor shall, before granting the approval for disclosure referred to in subsection (2), be satisfied that the disclosure is in the interests of the administration of justice or for any purpose related to the safety or security of the Islands or any state allied or associated with the Islands.

(4) For greater certainty, a judicial record includes any information in relation to the conviction that may be contained in a convicted person's index of a national DNA data bank as may be established.

37. (1) No judicial record of a discharge under any Law that is in the custody of the Commissioner or of any department or agency of the Government of the Islands shall be disclosed to any person, nor may the existence of the judicial record or the fact of the discharge be disclosed to any person, without the prior approval of the Governor unless -

Protection of disclosures of discharges

- (a) more than one year has elapsed since the person was discharged absolutely; or
- (b) more than three years have elapsed since the person was discharged on the conditions prescribed in a probation order.

(2) On the expiration of the relevant period referred to in subsection (1), the Commissioner shall remove all references to a discharge under any Law from the criminal conviction records retrieval system that may be maintained by the Police Service.

(3) Notwithstanding sections 36 and subsections (1) and (2), the name, date of birth and last known address of a person whose criminal record is expunged and who has received a discharge referred to in subsection (1) may be disclosed to the Police Service if a fingerprint, identified as that of the person, is found -

- (a) at the scene of a crime during an investigation of the crime; or
- (b) during an attempt to identify a deceased person or a person suffering from amnesia.

Protecting vulnerable persons

Notation and verification of records

38. (1) In this section, vulnerable person means a person who, because of that person's age, a disability or other circumstances, whether temporary or permanent is -

- (a) in a position of dependency on others; or
- (b) at a greater risk than the general population of being harmed by a person in a position of trust or authority towards them.

(2) The Commissioner shall make, in the criminal conviction records retrieval system maintained by the Police Service, a notation enabling a member of the Police Service or other authorised body to determine whether there is a criminal record of a person's conviction for an offence listed in Schedules 2 and 3 in respect of which the expungement of a criminal record has been approved.

Schedule 2
Schedule 3

(3) At the request of any person or organisation responsible for the well-being of a child or vulnerable person and to whom or to which an application is made for a paid or volunteer position, a member of the Police Service or other authorised body shall verify whether the applicant is the subject of a notation made in accordance with subsection (2) if -

- (a) the position is one of trust or authority towards that child or vulnerable person; and
- (b) the applicant has consented in writing to the verification.

(4) Except as authorised by subsection (3), no person may verify whether a person is the subject of a notation made in accordance with subsection (2).

(5) The Police Service or other authorised body that identifies an applicant for a position referred to in subsection (3)(a) as being a person who is the subject of a notation made in accordance with subsection (2) shall request the Commissioner to provide the Governor with any record of a conviction of that applicant, and the Commissioner shall transmit any such record to the Governor.

Disclosure and use of information

39. (1) The Governor may disclose to the Police Service or other authorised body all or part of the information contained in a record transmitted by the Commissioner under section 38(5).

(2) The Police Service or other authorised body shall disclose the information referred to in subsection (1) to the person or organisation that requested the verification if the applicant for a position has consented in writing to the disclosure.

(3) A person or organisation that acquires information under this section in relation to an application for a position shall not use it or communicate it except in relation to the assessment of the application.

(4) The Cabinet may by Order amend Schedule 2 and 3 by adding or deleting a reference to an offence, sentence or period.

Schedule 2
Schedule 3

(5) An Order made pursuant to section (4) shall be subject to affirmative resolution of the Legislative Assembly.

PART 7 - MISCELLANEOUS

40. The expungement of a criminal record may be revoked by the Board on evidence establishing to the satisfaction of the Board -

Revocation of expungement

- (a) that the person to whom it relates knowingly made a false or deceptive statement in relation to the application for the expungement, or knowingly concealed some material particular in relation to that application; or
- (b) that new information shows that the person was not eligible for the expungement when it was approved.

41. (1) If the Board proposes to revoke an expunged criminal record, the Board shall notify the applicant in writing and advise the applicant that the applicant may make, or have made on the applicant's behalf, representation to the Board either in writing within twenty-one days from the date of the notice or, with the Board's authorisation, orally at a hearing held for that purpose.

Representations

(2) The Board shall, before making its decision, consider any representations made to it by the applicant or on the applicant's behalf.

42. A person shall not be eligible to obtain more than two expungements unless the convictions are for multiple offences for which concurrent sentences were imposed, in which case those sentences shall be considered to be one conviction.

Limitation on expungements

43. The Board may disclose the number of decisions on approvals and disapprovals of expungement applications, and related matters with the exception that the Board may not disclose information that could reasonably be expected to identify a person unless that person authorises the disclosure in writing.

Disclosure of decisions relating to expunged
criminal records

Reports to Legislative Assembly	44. (1) The Board shall, within three months after the end of each financial year, submit to the Governor a report for that year containing the following information -
Schedule 2	(a) the number of applications for expungement of criminal records made in respect of the offences referred to in Schedule 2; (b) the number of expungement of criminal records that the Board approved or disapproved, in respect of the offences referred to in Schedule 2; (c) the number of expungement of criminal records approved, categorised by the offence to which they relate and, if applicable, the district of residence of the applicant; and (d) any other information required by the Governor. (2) The Governor shall cause the report to be laid before the Legislative Assembly on any of the first thirty days on which the House is sitting after the day on which the Governor receives it.
Law does not authorise contraventions of other Laws	45. Nothing in this Law authorises a person to disclose a conviction or to take a conviction into account if to do so would contravene any other Law.
Law does not affect certain other lawful acts	46. Nothing in this Law affects anything lawfully done before a conviction is expunged.
Non-destruction of records	47. This Law does not authorise the destruction by or on behalf of a public authority of an expunged criminal record.
Judicial review	48. A person affected by a decision of the Board may, within forty-five days of that decision, appeal to the Grand Court by way of judicial review of the decision.
Regulations	49. Cabinet may make Regulations generally for administering this Law by prescribing anything required or permitted by this Law to be prescribed, or is necessary or convenient to be prescribed in order to give effect to the objects of this Law and, in particular, may prescribe - (a) the additions, deletions, exceptions and conditions referred to in section 33(3); (b) the form of police clearance reports; (c) the procedure relating to applications for the expungement of criminal records; (d) the persons to whom disclosures can be made under section 33(2)(b);

- (e) the forms to be used for applications made under this Law;
- (f) the rules respecting the making of notations in respect of records of conviction, and the verification of such records, for the purposes of section 36(3);
- (g) the rules respecting the consent given by applicants to the searching of records and the disclosure of information contained in them, including the information to be given to applicants before obtaining their consent and the manner in which consent shall be given, for the purposes of sections 39(1) and (2);
- (h) rules governing the disclosure of decisions under section 43; and
- (i) what the exceptional circumstances that apply for the purposes of any part of this Law.

50. (1) The Rehabilitation of Offenders Law (1998 Revision), hereinafter referred to as the “repealed Law”, is hereby repealed.

Repeal of the
Rehabilitation of Offenders Law
1998 Revision

- (2) The rights or benefits of any person where those rights or benefits -
 - (a) were acquired under the repealed Law; and
 - (b) existed immediately prior to the commencement of this Law, shall not be adversely affected by this Law.

SCHEDULE 1

(Section 5)

EXPUNGEMENT BOARD

Constitution of the Board

1. (1) The Board shall consist of not less than three nor more than five members as the Governor may appoint.

(2) The Board shall include at least one of each of the following -

 - (ii) a social worker; or
- (c) a member of the public other than one referred to in paragraph (2)(a), (b) or (c) who may be a justice of the peace, minister of religion or other person.

(3) For purposes of assessing the qualifications and experience of persons to be considered for appointment to the Board, the Governor may appoint a panel which may or may not include members of the Cabinet.

Chairperson and Secretary

2. (1) The Governor shall appoint as Chairperson a member of the Board appointed under paragraph 1(2)(a)(i), (ii) or (iii).

(2) Where the Chairperson is absent or unable to act, the Governor shall appoint a member to perform the functions of Chairperson.

(3) Where the Chairperson is unable to attend a meeting and no person has been appointed under subsection (2) or, where one has been appointed but that person is also unable to attend, the other members at the meeting shall elect one of their number to act as Chairperson at that meeting.

(4) The Chief Officer in the Ministry responsible for the rehabilitation of offenders shall appoint a Secretary to the Board.

3. (1) The Board shall have a seal which shall be in the custody of the Chairperson or the Secretary and the seal shall be affixed to instruments pursuant to a resolution of the Board in the presence of the Chairperson or any other member of the Board and the Secretary.

Seal

(2) The seal of the Board shall be authenticated by the signature of the Chairperson or a member of the Board authorised to act in that behalf and the Secretary, and the seal shall be officially and judicially noticed.

(3) Documents, other than those required by law to be under seal, made by, and all decisions of, the Board may be signed by the Chairperson or any other member authorised to act in that behalf, or the Secretary.

4. Subject to the provisions of this Schedule, the appointment of members of the Board shall be for a period not exceeding three years and each member is eligible for reappointment.

Tenure of office of members

5. Where a member is absent or unable to act, the Governor shall appoint another person to act temporarily in the place of that member.

Temporary appointments

6. (1) If a vacancy occurs on the Board, the vacancy shall be filled by the appointment of another member who shall, subject to the provisions of this Schedule, hold office for the remainder of the period for which the previous member was appointed.

Filling vacancies

(2) In the making of appointments pursuant to this paragraph regard shall had to the requirements of paragraph 1(2).

7. (1) The Chairperson may at any time resign by instrument in writing addressed to the Governor and the resignation shall take effect from the date of receipt by the Governor of the instrument.

Resignations

(2) A member other than the Chairperson may resign by instrument in writing addressed to the Governor and transmitted through the Chairperson, and from the date of the receipt by the Governor of that instrument that member ceases to be a member of the Board.

8. The Governor may at any time revoke the appointment of any member of the Board.

Revocation of appointments

- Publication of membership
9. The names of all members of the Board as first constituted and every change in membership shall be published in the Gazette.
- Procedure for meetings
10. (1) The Board shall meet at such times as may be necessary or expedient for the transaction of its business and the meetings shall be held at such places and times and on such days as the Chairperson may determine.
- (2) Minutes in proper form of each meeting of the Board shall be kept by the Secretary.
- (3) Decisions of the Board shall be by a majority of the members present and voting and be in writing.
- (4) The Chairperson or, in the case of the absence or inability of the Chairperson to act, the person appointed or elected to act as Chairperson in accordance with paragraph 6 shall preside at the meetings of the Board, and when so presiding shall, in addition to an original vote, have a casting vote in any case in which the voting is equal.
- (5) The quorum of the Board shall be three.
- (6) Subject to the provisions of this Law the Board shall regulate its own proceedings.
- (7) The validity of any proceedings of the Board shall not be affected by any vacancy amongst the members or by any defect in the appointment of a member.
- Conflict of interest
11. (1) Where a member of the Board has a possible or perceived conflict of interest with respect to any matter that comes up for discussion, that member shall say so but not disclose the nature of the interest and -
- (a) shall, as soon as the matter comes up on the agenda, immediately leave the place in which the deliberations are taking place and shall not participate, directly or indirectly, in the deliberations touching such matter and shall not return while the matter is under discussion until a decision has been taken by the Board; and
- (b) shall otherwise comply with Regulations Cabinet may make with regard to conflict of interest.
- (2) A declaration of interest made under this section and the absence of the member concerned are to be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

12. (1) The Board may, if it thinks fit, transact any of its business by the circulation of papers among all the members of the Board, and a resolution in writing approved in writing by a majority of those members shall be taken to be a decision of the Board.

Transaction of business outside of meetings or by telephone

(2) A Board may, if it thinks fit, transact any of its business at a meeting at which members (or some members) participate by telephone, closed-circuit television or other means, but only if any member who speaks on a matter before the meeting can be heard by the other members.

(3) For the purposes of -

- (a) the approval of a resolution under sub-paragraph (1); or
- (b) a meeting held in accordance with sub-paragraph (2), the Chairperson and each member shall have the same voting rights as they have at an ordinary meeting of the Board.

(4) A resolution approved under sub-paragraph (1) or (2) shall be recorded in the minutes of the meetings of the Board.

(5) Papers may be circulated among the members for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) by facsimile or other transmission of the information in the papers concerned.
