 - (iii) the Director of Environmental Health of the Department of Environmental Health or designate.

10. (1) The Chairman, Deputy Chairman and other Board members referred to in section 9(a) may hold office for a period of up to four years and shall be eligible for re-appointment. Appointment and procedure of Board

(2) The Cabinet may appoint any person in the place of the Chairman or any member of the Board where the Chairman or a member of the Board is removed or has vacated the office.

(3) The Chairman or any member under section 9(a) may, at any time, resign the office by instrument in writing addressed to the Cabinet and such resignation shall take effect as from the date of receipt of such instrument by the Cabinet.

(4) The Board shall meet as may be necessary or expedient for the transaction of business and such meetings shall be held at such places and times and on such days as the Chairman may determine.

(5) If the Chairman is absent from a meeting the Deputy Chairman shall preside and if both the Chairman and the Deputy Chairman are absent the members present at the meeting shall elect one of their numbers to preside as Chairman.

(6) The quorum for meetings of the Board shall be five members including the Chairman.

(7) The decisions of the Board shall be by a majority of votes of members present and voting and, in addition to an original vote, the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote in any case in which the voting is equal.

(8) The Board shall have the power to delegate its duties and powers to consider expedited licences from time to time to a sub-committee comprised of at least three of its members, the majority of whom shall be members from the private sector, and the decisions of a subcommittee shall be by a majority of votes of members present and voting and, in addition to an original vote, the presiding member shall have a second or casting vote in any case in which the voting is equal.

(9) Minutes in proper form of each meeting shall be kept by the Secretariat and shall be confirmed by the Chairman as soon as practicable at a subsequent meeting.

(10) Members of the Board or a sub-committee of the Board may participate in a meeting of the Board or of the sub-committee, as the case may be, by means of a conference telephone, computer or similar equipment providing real time communication and allowing the participants in the meeting to communicate with each another at the same time, and participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at the meeting of the Board or sub-committee.

(11) The Board may, subject to this Law, make such rules as it thinks fit to regulate its procedures, its own internal management and the procedures and management of any subcommittee of the Board and at its first meeting shall approve and adopt standing orders that will govern procedure in connection with its meetings.

(12) For the purposes of this Part, “minutes” includes any electronic record or transcript of votes or decisions made during a meeting that takes place by means of conference telephone, computer or similar equipment.

11. (1) A person who is an elected member of the Legislative Assembly or a member of the Cabinet shall not be appointed as a member of the Board or, where already appointed, remain as a member of the Board.

Disqualification from being a Board member

(2) Members of the Board shall hold office at the Cabinet’s pleasure.

12. (1) The Department is designated as the Secretariat to the Board.

Secretariat

(2) The Secretariat shall be responsible for the day to day administration of the Board and, to the extent of the authority delegated to it by the Board, shall be responsible for the carrying out of the administrative duties of the Board, and shall provide the secretary who shall record and keep the minutes of all meetings, proceedings and decisions of the Board.

13. The validity of any act or proceeding of the Board shall not be affected by any vacancy among its members, or by any defect in the appointment of a member.

Validity of any act

14. (1) The facts and particulars of, or relating to, any matter falling for consideration by the Board or any decision of the Board shall be treated as confidential by each Board member and by any person to whom the Board delegates its functions and any such facts or particulars shall not be disclosed otherwise than in the proper performance of duties under this Law or in compliance with an order of a court or tribunal of competent jurisdiction.

Duty of confidentiality

(2) The failure of any Board member or any person to whom it delegates its functions to comply with subsection (1) is an offence and constitutes sufficient ground for the termination of the appointment.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of one year, or to both.

(4) Any allegation of a breach of subsection (1) shall be fully investigated by a constable of the rank of Inspector or above.

15. Where a Board member has a personal or pecuniary interest, direct or indirect, in any matter which is to be determined by the Board, the member shall, if present at the duly constituted meeting of the Board at which such matter is to be determined, as soon as practicable after the commencement of the meeting, disclose the fact and leave the meeting.

Board members’ interests

16. (1) A Board member shall not be liable in damages for anything done or omitted in the discharge or purported discharge of the member’s functions,

Protection from liability and indemnity responsibilities, powers and duties under this Law unless it is shown that the act or omission was in bad faith.

(2) The Government shall indemnify a Board member against all claims, damages, costs, charges or expenses incurred by that member in the discharge or purported discharge of the member's functions, responsibilities, powers and duties under this Law, except claims, damages, costs, charges or expenses caused by the bad faith of that Board member.

PART 3 - LICENSING

Requirement for licence

17. (1) A person shall not carry on a trade or business in or from within the Islands unless that person holds a valid licence issued under this Law for each type of trade or business that the licensee is carrying on and in respect of each location from which such trade or business is being carried on, except where the provisions of this Law do not apply to the person.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction -

- (a) in the case of a first offence to a fine of ten thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of one year, or to both; or
- (b) in the case of a second or subsequent offence to a fine of twenty thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of two years, or to both.

(3) Where the Board reasonably suspects or is informed that a person is contravening subsection (1), a trade officer may lay before a Magistrate or a Justice of the Peace an information on oath setting out the grounds for the suspicion and apply for the issue of a warrant to search the premises.

(4) Where an application is made under subsection (3) for a warrant, the Magistrate or Justice of the Peace may issue a warrant authorizing the trade officer to enter upon the premises, and search and inspect the premises with such assistance, including assistance from a police officer, and by such force as is necessary and reasonable, and to -

- (a) examine, inspect, make copies of, seize or remove any document or record that the trade officer or police officer has reasonable grounds to believe is evidence of the commission of an offence; and
- (b) seize any equipment or other property found on the premises in the course of the search that the trade officer or police officer has reasonable grounds to believe is being used in the commission of an offence under this Law.

(5) A licensee shall take steps to remove or discontinue any advertising pertaining to a trade or business that is in contravention of this section as soon as practicable and in any event not exceeding thirty days from the date of receipt of notification to remove or discontinue advertising in such form as may be prescribed.

(6) A person who -

- (a) destroys or alters, or causes to be destroyed or altered, any document, record, equipment or other property found on the premises in the course of a search under subsection (4);
- (b) hinders, obstructs, prevents or interferes with a trade officer or police officer in the exercise of a power under this section; or
- (c) fails to remove all advertising in contravention of subsection (5), commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of one year, or to both.

(7) Any document, record, equipment or other property seized under a search warrant under this section shall -

- (a) where legal proceedings are not commenced within a period of thirty days from the date of seizure of the document, record, equipment or other property be returned to the owner; or
- (b) where legal proceedings are commenced within a period of thirty days of the seizure, be kept until the conclusion of those proceedings.

(8) Where any document, record, equipment or other property is seized under this section, every effort shall be taken by the trade officer or the police officer to store the seized item in a place and condition that is appropriate for preserving it.

(9) Where a person is convicted of an offence under this Law in respect of any document, record, equipment or other property seized under this section, the court may order the forfeiture of that document, record, equipment or other property seized.

(10) Any equipment forfeited under this section is to be disposed of by way of an open sale, where practicable.

(11) Any net income derived from an open sale under subsection (10) shall be deposited into the general revenue of the Islands.

18. (1) Any person carrying on a trade or business shall, unless excluded from the application of this Law, apply to the Board for the grant or renewal of a licence in accordance with the respective categories of trade or business set out in Part B of Schedule 1.

Application for grant or renewal of a licence

Schedule 1

(2) An application pursuant to subsection (1) shall be -

- (a) submitted to the Board through the Department in the prescribed form; and
- (b) accompanied by -
 - (i) in the case of a company the following particulars -
 - (A) the number and par value of each class of shares issued by the company;
 - (B) the voting and other rights attached to each class of shares;
 - (C) a statement of the number and par value of each class of shares beneficially owned by Caymanians;
 - (D) a statement of the number and par value of each class of shares held by persons who are not Caymanian; and
 - (E) a statement that the effective control, benefit and effective control of the company is not, either directly or indirectly or by reason of any artifice or device vested in or permitted to pass to persons other than as specifically shown in the return of shareholdings;
 - (ia) in the case of a company that is at least one year old, a stamped copy of the company's annual return and a return of shareholdings containing the particulars listed in subparagraphs (i)(A) to (E);
 - (ii) evidence of status as a Caymanian, if any, of -
 - (A) the applicant, where the applicant is an individual;
 - (B) any individual who has a legal or beneficial interest in the company, where the applicant is a company; or
 - (C) each individual who is a partner in the firm, where the applicant is a firm;
 - (iii) in the case of an application for the grant of a licence only, a police clearance certificate for -
 - (A) the applicant, where the applicant is an individual;
 - (B) any individual who has a legal or beneficial interest in the company, where the applicant is a company; or
 - (C) each individual who is a partner in the firm, where the applicant is a firm;
 - (iv) in the case of an application for the grant of a licence only, a bank reference for the applicant;
 - (v) where the applicant will be carrying on business in a public place, evidence of the approval of the relevant authority to carry on business in such a place;
 - (vi) where permission is required under any Law in force in the Islands relating to planning, evidence of such permission;
 - (vii) evidence of compliance with the Law relating to pensions in force in the Islands, where the application is for renewal;

- (viii) evidence of compliance with the Law relating to health insurance in force in the Islands where the application is for renewal;
- (ix) the non-refundable application fee specified in Schedule 1 to be paid to the general revenue of the Islands;
- (x) the licence fee specified in Schedule 1 or, subject to section 23(2), the renewal fee specified in Schedule 1 to be paid to the general revenue of the Islands or a waiver of the licence fee in writing from the Cabinet; and
- (xi) such other information relating to the application as may be deemed necessary by the Board for the consideration of the application or as may be prescribed.

(3) An application for the renewal of a licence shall be made at least twenty-eight days before, but not more than three months before, the date of expiry of the licence.

(4) Where a company is not Caymanian owned and controlled, the applicant shall, unless exempted by the Local Companies Control Law (2007 Revision), apply for a licence under that Law prior to applying for a licence under this Law. (2007 Revision)

(5) Where an incomplete application is submitted under subsection (1), the Board may require an applicant to complete and re-submit the application, subject to payment of the re-submission fee specified in Schedule 1.

(6) The Board may take such steps to carry out due diligence procedures with regards to any director or any person who has a beneficial interest in a trade or business for which an application for the grant or renewal of a licence is made under this Law.

(7) The Cabinet may waive the licence fee for an individual trade or business or the trades or businesses in a sector or an industry set out in Part B of Schedule 1 where the Cabinet determines it is in the public interest to do so.

- (8) A person shall not -
- (a) in relation to any application submitted pursuant to this section;
 - or
 - (b) in relation to any information or particulars that the person is required to furnish pursuant to this section, make any representation or statement that the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular.

(9) A person who contravenes subsection (8) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of one year or to both.

Restriction on grant or renewal of a licence

19. (1) A licence shall not be granted or renewed by the Board under this Law where the Board is satisfied that -

(2014 Revision)

- (a) the applicant -
 - (i) is a person who is not Caymanian as defined by the Immigration Law (2014 Revision) and does not hold a work permit as defined by the Immigration Law (2014 Revision);
 - (ii) is adjudged bankrupt or suspended payment to or compounded with the applicant's creditors;
 - (iii) is, under this or any other Law, disqualified from holding the licence sought;
 - (iv) is non-compliant with this Law or with any other Law regulating the applicant, including Laws relating to pensions, health insurance, labour relations, environmental health or planning in the Islands and is not taking the necessary actions to resolve such non-compliance; or
 - (v) being a company is not Caymanian owned and controlled and does not have a licence in accordance with the Local Companies Control Law (2007 Revision), except where the company is an exempted company under section 164 of the Companies Law (2013 Revision).

(2007 Revision)

(2013 Revision)

- (b) the Chief Medical Officer has, on the grounds of public health in relation to the premises in which the applicant proposes to carry on the trade or business, objected to the grant of a licence to the applicant; or
- (c) the grant or renewal of the licence would be contrary to the public interest.

(2) The Board may refuse to grant a licence to a person or where a person has already been granted a licence, revoke the licence where, in the Board's opinion, the person is carrying on or intending to carry on trade or business under a name which is likely to mislead persons because it is -

- (a) identical to the name of any other person carrying on trade or business, whether in the Islands or not, or so nearly resembles that name as to be calculated to deceive;
- (aa) identical or similar to a registered trade mark unless it is established that the trade or business is the owner of the trade mark or it has a licence to use the trade mark;
- (b) calculated to suggest, falsely, the patronage of or connection with some person or authority, whether in the Islands or not; or
- (c) calculated to suggest, falsely, that such person has a special status in relation to, or derived from, the Government or has the official backing or acts on behalf of the Government or any department, branch, agency or office of Government.

20. (1) Where an application is submitted to the Board pursuant to section 18, the Board may, within twenty-eight days of the receipt of the application request additional information from the applicant that it deems necessary for the purpose of considering the application.

Request for additional information

(2) Where the Board makes a request for information pursuant to subsection (1), the applicant shall submit that information within fourteen days of the request or within a further period of time as may be requested by the applicant and granted by the Board in writing.

(3) The Board shall not unreasonably refuse to give a further time period under subsection (2).

(4) Where the applicant has not submitted the additional information within the timeframe outlined in subsection (2) the Board shall -

- (a) cease considering the application;
- (b) return the application to the applicant along with the licence fee;
- (c) give the applicant the reason in writing for the Board's decision to cease considering the application; and
- (d) where the applicant was a licensee at the time of the application, give the status of the applicant's licence and the steps that the applicant needs to take to have the licence reinstated and to be otherwise in compliance with this Law.

(5) Where the Board returns an application under subsection (4) and the applicant wishes to re-apply, he shall pay to the general revenue of the Islands the fees referred to in sections 18 (2)(b)(ix) and 18(2)(b)(x).

(6) Where an application for renewal has been returned under subsection (4), the respective licence shall be deemed to be suspended or revoked by the Board and section 29(6) or (7), as the case may be, shall apply.

21. (1) The Board shall, within ninety days of submission or resubmission of an application for a new licence or the receipt of information requested pursuant to section 19, whichever is later, grant or refuse a licence and shall notify the applicant of the grant or refusal and give reasons in writing where the licence is refused.

Grant of licence and expedited licence

(2) The Board shall, within thirty days of submission or resubmission of an application for the renewal of a licence or the receipt of information requested pursuant to section 19, whichever is later, renew a licence or refuse to renew a licence and shall notify the applicant of the renewal or refusal to renew and give reasons in writing where the renewal is refused.

(3) In the event of the Board refusing to grant or renew a licence, the fee paid pursuant to section 18(2)(b)(x) shall be refunded to the applicant.

(4) The Board may, by order, attach such conditions or restrictions on licences generally or to licences granted to a sector or an industry as it deems fit.

Schedule 1

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (1) or (2), the Board, on receipt of an application for an expedited licence or renewal of a licence which is accompanied by an expedited licence fee of the amount specified in Schedule 1 and otherwise in accordance with the requirements under section 18, shall grant, renew or refuse the licence within five business days of receiving an eligible application.

(6) Notwithstanding the provisions in section 6, determinations on applications for expedited licences shall be taken by a subcommittee of the Board, such subcommittee being comprised of at least three members of the Board.

(7) The Cabinet may make regulations setting out the criteria for the grant of an expedited licence in such sectors or industries as the Cabinet may specify.

(8) A licensee who fails to comply with a condition or restriction commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars.

Evidence of licence and public display of licence

22. (1) A licence granted or renewed under this Law shall be evidenced by a certificate in the prescribed form and the licence shall be framed by the licensee and publicly displayed on the premises to which such licence relates.

(2) A licensee who fails to display the licence as required under subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five hundred dollars.

Validity of licence and renewal fee

23. (1) Subject to -

- (a) the voluntary surrender of a licence under section 27;
- (b) the suspension or revocation of a licence under section 29;
- (c) the revocation of a licence under section 30; or
- (d) the revocation of a licence under section 31, a licence shall be valid for the period specified in the licence.

(2) A licensee who fails to pay the renewal fee within twenty-eight days after the expiry date of the licence shall, unless the Board waives it, pay to the general revenue of the Islands a surcharge not exceeding twenty-five per cent of the renewal fee specified in Schedule 1 for every month or part of a month that the renewal fee is not paid, such amount not exceeding the renewal fee.

Schedule 1

(3) If the renewal fee referred to in subsection (2) is not paid and the licensee continues to operate the trade or business, in addition to any criminal penalties to which the licensee is liable, the unpaid renewal fee may be sued for by the Board by action as a civil debt and the Board may require, and the court may order, the payment of any surcharge accrued under subsection (2) in respect of the late payment of the renewal fee.

(4) Where the renewal fee is not paid for a period of five months a licence shall be suspended or revoked by the Board and section 29(6) or (7), as the case may be, shall apply.

24. (1) A licensee shall not transfer or assign a licence to any other person, including a company. Transfer of licence

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a person owning or holding a significant interest in a licensee shall not sell, transfer, charge or otherwise dispose of that person's interest in the licensee, or any part of that person's interest, unless the prior written approval of the Board has been obtained.

(3) A licensee shall not, unless with the written approval of the Board -

- (a) cause, permit or acquiesce in a sale, transfer, charge or other disposition referred to in subsection (2); or
- (b) issue or allot any shares or cause, permit or acquiesce in any other reorganisation of its share capital that results in -
 - (i) a person acquiring a significant interest in the licensee; or
 - (ii) a person who already owns or holds a significant interest in the licensee, increasing or decreasing the size of that person's interest.

(4) The Board may, in respect of a licensee whose shares are publicly traded, waive the obligation to obtain approval under subsection (2) and any such waiver shall be subject to a condition that the licensee shall, as soon as reasonably practicable, notify the Board of any sale, transfer, charge or other disposition referred to in subsection (2).

(5) The Board shall not unreasonably withhold the approval required under subsections (2) or (3), or a waiver under subsection (4).

(6) Notwithstanding anything in this section, where a sale, transfer, charge or other disposition referred to in this section is as a result of an internal reorganization of a body corporate that constitutes ultimate transfer of control of a licensee, a new licence will be required in addition to the prior written approval of the Board.

(7) For the purposes of this section "significant interest", in respect of a company, means a holding or interest in the company or in any holding company of the company held or owned by a person, either alone or with any other person and whether legally or equitably, that entitles or enables the person, directly or indirectly -

- (a) to control ten percent or more of the voting rights of that company at a general meeting of the company;
 - (b) to a share of ten percent or more in dividends declared and paid by the company; or
 - (c) to a share of ten percent or more in any distribution of the surplus assets of the company.
- Amendment of licence
Schedule 1 25. On application made by a licensee in the prescribed form and on payment by the licensee of the amendment fee specified in Schedule 1 to the general revenue of the Islands, the Board may amend the licence to, among other things -
 - (a) amend the address or premises at which the trade or business may be carried on;
 - (b) amend the name of the licensee; or
 - (c) vary any term or condition of the licence.
- Notification of changes of addresses, etc. 26. (1) A licensee who, during the currency of the licence, changes address or, being a corporation, its corporate identity or the scope of its trade or business shall notify the Board no later than thirty days after such change of address, corporate identity or scope.

(2) A licensee who fails to notify the Board in the circumstances set out in subsection (1) commits an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine of five hundred dollars.
- Surrender of licence 27. A licensee shall, within thirty days of voluntarily ceasing to carry on a trade or business, give notice in writing to the Board and surrender the licence which shall be deemed to be invalid from the date the licensee ceased to carry on the trade or business or such other date as may be determined by the Board.
- Breaches by licensee 28. (1) Where the Board or Department reasonably suspects that a licensee is in breach of any provision of this Law, the Board or Department may conduct any investigation it considers necessary in relation to the licensee and may upon obtaining a warrant perform any of the following in the course of such investigation -
 - (a) enter any premises for the purpose of ascertaining compliance with this Law;
 - (b) compel the production of books, records and documents in the custody or control of the licensee;
 - (c) compel the appearance of an employee or officer of a licensee or any other person for the purpose of ascertaining compliance with this Law or the relevant licence;
 - (d) inspect, examine or make copies of any book, record or document in the possession of the licensee relevant to the licence held by the licensee;

- (e) require verification of income and all other matters pertinent to the licence; and
- (f) seize or remove any document or records relating to the licence for the purpose of examination and inspection.

(2) A person shall not -

- (a) hinder, obstruct, prevent or interfere with the Board in the exercise of a power pursuant to this section;
- (b) fail without reasonable excuse to answer any question relating to any register, book, record or other document or any relevant matter when required to do so by the Board under subsection (1); or
- (c) provide false or misleading information to the Board that leads to an investigation or during the course of an investigation.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (2) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of one year, or to both.

(4) Where, after an investigation under this section, the Board finds that -

- (a) the allegations or suspicions under subsection (1) are substantiated, the Board shall so notify the licensee of its findings and, where appropriate, issue directions to the licensee requesting the licensee to stop the breach and take remedial action within a specific time period; or
- (b) where the allegations under subsection (1) are found by the Board to be unsubstantiated, the Board shall cease its investigations.

(5) A licensee who fails to comply with a direction of the Board given pursuant to subsection (4)(a) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of ten thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of two years, or to both.

(6) Any document or record seized or removed under this section for the purpose of examination or inspection shall be returned promptly on completion of the examination or inspection.

29. (1) Notwithstanding section 28(5), where a licensee fails to comply with any direction given by the Board under section 28(4), the Board may suspend or revoke the licence.

Suspension or revocation of licence

(2) Prior to the suspension or the revocation of a licence pursuant to subsection (1) or section 20, the Board shall give the licensee notice in writing of the intention to do so, specifying the grounds on which the Board considers that the licence ought to be suspended or revoked and shall require the licensee to submit to it, within a specified period being not less than fourteen days of receipt of the notice by the licensee, a written statement of objection to the suspension or revocation, where the licensee intends to object to the suspension or revocation.

- (3) A notice issued under subsection (2) shall be served on a licensee -
- (a) personally or at the licensee's registered office; or
 - (b) if service is not possible in accordance with paragraph (a), by notice published in the Gazette and in any other medium as the Board determines.

(4) The Board shall, where it has considered a statement of objection submitted pursuant to subsection (2), inform the licensee of its decision and shall give the reasons for its decision in writing.

(5) A person aggrieved by the decision of the Board under subsection (4) shall have the right of appeal under section 37.

(6) A licence that is revoked is invalid.

(7) A licence that is suspended is invalid for the period during which it is suspended.

(8) The Board shall, by notice published in the Gazette and any other medium as the Board determines, inform the public of the suspension or revocation of a licence pursuant to this section.

Revocation order

30. (1) In the event of a licensee under this Law being convicted of any offence connected with the conduct of the licensee's trade or business licensed under this Law, the convicting court may order that the licence be revoked and may order that the licensee be disqualified for a period not exceeding three years from applying for the grant of any new licence for any business.

(2) The Clerk of the Court shall forthwith give notice to the Board of the making of the order under subsection (1).

(3) No refund of any licence fee shall be payable as the result of such revocation under subsection (1).

Revocation under Local Companies (Control) Law (2007 Revision)

31. In the event of a revocation under the Local Companies (Control) Law (2007 Revision) of a licence under that Law authorizing the holder to carry on any trade or business in respect of which the holder also holds a licence under this Law, such revocation shall by that fact itself revoke the licence under this Law and no refund of any licence fee shall be payable as a result.

Register

32. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Board shall keep and maintain a register of all licensees, in such form as may be determined by the Board.

(2) The Board shall record the following particulars in the Register for each licensee -

- (a) the name of the licensee;
- (b) the postal address of the licensee;
- (c) the address of the premises at which the trade or business is being carried out;
- (d) the category of the licence;
- (e) the date of expiry of the licence; and
- (f) the terms and conditions of the licence.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), the Board shall allow -

- (a) the public access to the Register and shall take such steps as may be necessary to give effect to this; and
- (b) a person to inspect the Register and make a copy of any part of the Register on payment of the inspection fee specified in Schedule 1.

Schedule 1

(4) Nothing in this section shall be read as repealing any provision of a Law that restricts access to records.

33. (1) A licence issued pursuant to this Law shall not have the effect of dispensing with the necessity of obtaining permission where such permission is required pursuant to any other Law.

Permission under other Laws

(2) In this section “permission” includes registration, licence, authorization and permit.

34. (1) A licensee shall not use the word “licensed” in juxtaposition with any word describing a trade or business carried on by the licensee on the ground only that the licensee is licensed under this Law.

Restriction on the use of the word “licensed”

(2) A licence under this Law has no relevance to the qualification, skill or financial stability of the licensee.

(3) A licensee who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine of five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term of one year, or to both.

PART 4 - MISCELLANEOUS

35. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Law, the offences set out in Schedule 2 are designated as ticketable offences.

Ticketable offences

Schedule 2

(2) The payment of the fixed penalty stated on the ticket up to twenty-eight days after being served is an option to discharge liability to conviction for the offence set out on the ticket.

(3) Where a person is served with a ticket under this section in respect of an offence set out in Schedule 2, criminal proceedings in respect of the act that constitutes the offence specified on the ticket, shall not commence except where the fixed penalty remains unpaid after twenty-eight days of the service of the ticket.

(4) Payment of a fixed penalty under this section shall be made to the Department and all fixed penalties paid under this Law shall, unless otherwise expressly stated, form part of the general revenue of the Islands.

(5) In any proceedings, a certificate that payment of the fixed penalty was or was not made to the Department by the date specified in the certificate shall, where the certificate is signed by the Director, be sufficient evidence of the facts stated unless the contrary is proved.

Schedule 3

(6) A ticket shall be in the form set out in Schedule 3 and shall -

- (a) contain a statement signed by the trade officer certifying that the trade officer has reason to believe that an offence has been committed under this Law;
- (b) include a summary of the facts of the offence and the specific section of this Law that has been contravened;
- (c) indicate with reasonable precision, having regard to all the circumstances, the time and place at which the offence was committed;
- (d) set out the fixed penalty for the offence;
- (e) set out the options that the person served with the ticket has in responding to it and the time within which the person shall respond;
- (f) state the period of time during which proceedings will not be commenced for the offence;
- (g) require the person, in the event that the fixed penalty is not paid nor the plea under subsection (12) entered within the period specified in the notice, to attend before the summary court to enter a plea on such date as may be specified, the date being not earlier than ten days after the expiration of the period specified in subsection (3); and
- (h) state that the ticket may be used as the evidence of the Department.

(7) The fixed penalty for ticketable offences shall be as specified in Schedule 2.

(8) Service of a ticket on the person whom a trade officer has reason to believe committed an offence is effected by the trade officer delivering a copy of the ticket to the person or by leaving it at the last known place of business or abode of the person or by sending it by registered mail to the last known place of business or abode of the person.

(9) A trade officer who serves a ticket shall complete and sign a certificate of service stating that the ticket was, on the date set out in the certificate, served on the person whom the trade officer had reason to believe committed the offence and the certificate shall be evidence that, on the date set out in the certificate, a ticket was served on the person whom the trade officer had reason to believe committed the offence.

(10) A person may pay the total amount set out in the ticket in accordance with subsection (11), enter a “not guilty” plea in accordance with subsection (12) or attend the summary court on the date set out on the ticket and enter a plea.

(11) The payment of the total fixed penalty within twenty-eight days of being served constitutes a discharge from liability for conviction for the offence.

(12) A person who is served with a ticket who wishes to enter a “not guilty” plea may request a trial by signing the request for trial on the ticket and delivering it to the Clerk of Court within twenty-eight days of being served with the ticket and the Clerk shall enter the plea of “not guilty”.

(13) As soon as practicable after a person requests a trial under subsection (12), the Clerk of the Court shall notify the Department of the request, request the duplicate ticket, fix the time and place of the trial and notify the defendant and the prosecution of the time and place of the trial.

(14) A person who has been served with a ticket under this section and has not exercised any of the options referred to in subsection (10) or (12) shall attend at the court on the date specified in the ticket which shall be no earlier than thirty-eight days after the date that the ticket was served on the person and the notice of the court date on the ticket shall be notice to the defendant and the prosecution of the same.

(15) The Department shall, within forty-eight hours, file with the Clerk every ticket that remains unpaid after twenty-eight days of having been served.

(16) A ticket filed with the Clerk of Court is evidence of the facts alleged in the ticket without proof of the signature or official character of the person appearing to have completed the ticket or the person on whom the ticket was served.

(17) Except as otherwise provided, a notice or document required or authorized to be given or delivered under this section may be given or delivered personally by registered mail or by other prescribed means.

(18) Evidence that a notice or document required or authorized to be given or delivered to a person under this section was sent by registered mail or any other prescribed means to the person at the last known place of abode or business address appearing on a ticket, certificate of service or other document in the court file, is sufficient evidence that the notice or document was given or delivered to the person, unless the contrary is proved.

(19) A person who is convicted of a ticketable offence in a trial requested under subsection (12) or in a trial as a result of a failure to exercise the options under subsection (10) may be liable to a fine greater than the fixed penalty provided for that ticketable offence but not exceeding the maximum fine provided for that offence under this Law.

(2014 Revision)

(20) The ticket, for the purposes of a trial under subsection (12) and subsection (14), is deemed to be a complaint within the meaning of section 14 of the Criminal Procedure Code (2014 Revision).

(21) Notwithstanding anything in law to the contrary, where the ticket remains unpaid at the expiration of the time specified for the payment of the fixed penalty or where the person served requests a trial the ticket shall be deemed to be a summons issued in accordance with section 15 of the Criminal Procedure Code (2014 Revision).

(22) Proceedings in respect of an offence deemed to be instituted by a ticket under this Law shall not be listed for hearing in Court unless -

- (a) the trade officer delivers the duplicate of the ticket with an endorsement stating that the fixed penalty had not been received within the twenty-eight-day period within which it was payable; and
- (b) a period of ten days has elapsed from the last day on which the fixed penalty was payable.

(23) Where the fixed penalty is not paid within the time specified in the ticket or the person served requests a trial, proceedings in respect of the offence specified in the ticket shall be in accordance with the procedure set out for Category C offences under the Criminal Procedure Code (2014 Revision).

Appeals Tribunal

36. (1) For the purposes of this Law, there is established an Appeals Tribunal which shall comprise the following members -

- (a) a Chairman who shall be an attorney-at-law;
- (b) a Deputy Chairman; and
- (c) three other members,

all of whom shall be appointed by the Cabinet for a period not exceeding two years.

(2) For the purpose of exercising its jurisdiction under this Law, the Appeals Tribunal shall sit and be duly constituted to hear and determine appeals with three of its members sitting together, one of whom shall be the chairman or in the absence of the Chairman, the Deputy Chairman.

(3) The Chairman or, in absence of the Chairman, the Deputy Chairman shall preside over meetings of the Appeals Tribunal.

(4) The Cabinet shall appoint a person to be the secretary to the Appeals Tribunal who shall record and keep all minutes of the meetings, proceedings and decisions of the Appeals Tribunal, and such secretary shall have no right to vote.

(5) The Appeals Tribunal shall meet at such times as may be necessary or desirable in the public interest.

(6) If a member of the Appeals Tribunal has any personal or pecuniary interest, direct or indirect, in any matter which is to be determined by the Tribunal, the member shall, if present at the meeting of the Tribunal at which such matter is to be determined, as soon as practicable after the commencement of the meeting, disclose the fact, and shall not take part in the consideration or discussion of such matter or vote on any question with respect to the matter.

(7) The Appeals Tribunal shall reach its decision by a majority of votes of its members present and voting at a meeting and the Chairman or Deputy Chairman or other member of the Appeals Tribunal presiding at the meeting shall, in addition to the original vote, have a casting vote.

(8) Subject to subsections (3) to (7), and sections 37 and 38, the Appeals Tribunal shall regulate its own procedure.

37. (1) A person aggrieved by, or dissatisfied with, a decision of the Board made under this Law may, within twenty-eight days of the communication of the decision, or such longer period as the Appeals Tribunal may allow for good cause shown, appeal against that decision to the Appeals Tribunal.

Appeals from decisions of the Board

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the decision shall, if notice of it is sent to a person by registered mail, be deemed to have been communicated to the person at the time at which it would have been received.

38. (1) Appeals under section 37 shall be by notice in writing addressed to the Appeals Tribunal, and shall specify -

Conduct of appeals

- (a) the decision against which the appeal is made;
- (b) the Board's reasons for its decision;
- (c) the grounds of the appeal; and
- (d) whether the appellant wishes to be heard personally or by a representative, and the notice of appeal shall be accompanied by the non-refundable processing fee specified in Schedule 1.

Schedule 1

(2) On receipt of the notice of appeal, the Appeals Tribunal shall, where the appellant has applied to be heard personally or by a representative, decide whether the appellant shall be so heard and, if it is so decided, fix a time and date for such hearing and shall notify the appellant and the Board thereof.

(3) At the hearing of an appeal where the appellant or the appellant's representative is present, the appellant or the representative shall be given an opportunity to address the Appeals Tribunal, and a representative of the Board shall be heard in answer if called upon by the Appeals Tribunal in that behalf, and the Appeals Tribunal may call upon either party to address it further.

(4) Representatives of either party need not be persons having legal qualifications.

(5) The decision of the Appeals Tribunal shall be communicated to the appellant and the Board no later than twenty-eight days after the hearing.

(6) On an appeal, the Appeals Tribunal may make such order in accordance with this Law as it thinks fit.

(7) An appeal may be made to the Grand Court from a decision of the Appeals Tribunal on a point of law only.

(8) The Cabinet may make regulations prescribing the procedure and forms to be used for appeals under this section.

Offences by officers of body corporate

39. (1) Where an offence under this Law which has been committed by a body corporate is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the body corporate or any person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, the officer or any person purporting to act in that capacity, as well as the body corporate commits that offence and are both liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(2) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, subsection (1) shall apply in relation to the acts and defaults of the member in connection with the member's functions of management as if the member were a director of the body corporate.

Regulations

40. (1) The Cabinet may make regulations prescribing all matters that are required or permitted by this Law to be prescribed or as are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for giving effect to the purposes of this Law.

(2) Regulations made pursuant to subsection (1) may -

- (a) prescribe categories of licences and impose conditions for such categories of licences;
- (b) reserve specified businesses and specified categories of licences for Caymanians and may impose restrictions or prohibitions on the carrying out of specified businesses and the granting of specified categories of licences to persons who are not Caymanian;

- (c) grant, from time to time, incentives to micro businesses and small businesses in the form of reduced licensing fees or schedules for the payment of licensing fees under this Law;
- (d) create offences punishable by a fine not exceeding five thousand dollars;
- (e) amend the definition of the terms “micro business” and “small business; and
- (f) amend Schedules 1, 2 and 3.

Schedules 1, 2 and 3

41. The Trade and Business Licensing Law (2007 Revision) is repealed.

Repeal of Trade and Business Licensing Law (2007 Revision)

42. (1) Every application for a licence or renewal of a licence under the Trade and Business Licensing Law (2007 Revision), in this section referred to as “the repealed Law”, that has not been wholly dealt with by the Board when this Law comes into force shall be processed in the manner that the application would have been processed under the repealed Law and on the grant of the licence, the Board shall direct the licensee of any steps to be taken by the licensee in order that there is compliance with this Law and the period of time within which the steps shall be taken, such directions having the same legal effect as directions under section 28.

Savings and transitional provisions
2007 Revision

(2) Any approval, decision, appeal or other matter in progress under the repealed Law that has not been wholly dealt with by the Board or other person or body when this Law comes into force shall be handled as the respective matter would have been handled under the repealed Law until the matter is wholly dealt with.

(3) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Law every civil matter and proceeding commenced in any court under the repealed Law and pending or in progress immediately before this Law comes into force may be continued, completed and enforced under this Law.

(4) All proceedings in respect of offences committed in contravention of the repealed Law may be commenced or continued as if this Law had not come into force.

(5) Subject to subsection (6), every licence, approval, incentive, temporary reduction in fees or direction made or granted under the repealed Law and in force immediately before this Law comes into force shall continue in force after this Law comes into force on the same conditions and with the same effect as if they had been made or granted in accordance with this Law.

(6) A licensee existing at the coming into force of this Law who is not in compliance with this Law shall comply within six months of the coming into force of this Law or such longer period as the Board may, for good cause shown, permit.

(7) Every form issued or prescribed for use under the repealed Law is to be regarded as issued or approved for use under this Law until another form is issued or prescribed for use under this Law in place of that form.

(8) Where any period of time specified in the repealed Law is current at the coming into force of this Law, and there is a corresponding provision in this Law, this Law shall have effect as if that corresponding provision had been in force when that period began to run.
