A BILL FOR A LAW TO AMEND THE PENAL CODE (2018 REVISION) TO PROVIDE FOR THE RETROSPECTIVE APPLICATION OF SEXUAL HARM PREVENTION ORDERS; TO PROVIDE FOR OFFENCES IN RESPECT OF SEXUAL COMMUNICATION WITH A CHILD; TO PROVIDE FOR OFFENCES IN RESPECT OF SEXUAL ACTIVITIES WITH A CHILD; AND FOR INCIDENTAL AND CONNECTED PURPOSES
THE PENAL CODE (AMENDMENT) BILL, 2018

MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

This Bill seeks to amend the Penal Code (2018 Revision) (“the principal Law”) to provide for the retrospective application of Sexual Harm Prevention Orders. Provision is also made for offences in respect of sexual communication with a child and sexual activities with a child.

Clause 1 provides for the short title of the legislation.

Clause 2 amends the principal Law by inserting a new section 45G to provide for the making of a Sexual Harm Prevention Order in relation to any act, behaviour, conviction or finding in respect of an offence of a sexual or indecent nature which occurred before the commencement of the Penal Code (Amendment) Law, 2017.

Clause 3 amends the principal Law by inserting a new section 132A to provide for the offence of assault by penetration in respect of a child.

Clause 4 amends the principal Law by repealing and replacing section 135 which formerly provided for the offence of defilement of idiots and imbeciles with a new provision which provides for the offence of sexual assault of a mentally impaired person.

Clause 5 amends the principal Law by inserting eight new offences in respect of sexual contact with a child. These are -

1. Sexual communication with a child - where a person communicates with a child with the intention that such communication encourages the child to make a communication that is sexual or related to a sexual activity.
2. Arranging to meet a child following sexual communication - where a person has communicated with a child on one or more occasions and subsequently arranges to meet that child for the purpose of the commission of an activity that is sexual in nature.
3. Meeting a child following sexual communication - where a person has communicated with a child on one or more occasions and subsequently meets that child for the purpose of the commission of an activity that is sexual in nature.
4. Procuration of a child for a sexual activity - where a person engages in conduct with intent to procure a child for the purpose of the commission of an activity that is sexual in nature.
(5) Causing a child to watch a sexual activity - where a person intentionally causes a child to watch another person engaging in an activity that is sexual in nature.

(6) Engaging in sexual activity in the presence of a child - where a person intentionally engages in an activity that is sexual in nature in the presence of a child.

(7) Inviting a child to participate in sexual activity - where a person invites a child to engage in touching or other behaviour that is sexual in nature.

(8) Abuse of position of trust - where a person, being in a position of trust, engages in any communication or activity that is sexual in nature with a child. The section defines a position of trust as including “any position which involves the regular caring for, training, supervising or being in charge of that child.

The sentences in respect of these new offences range from four to twelve years with the offence of abuse of position of trust carrying a mandatory minimum sentence of four years where the offender pleads guilty or six years upon conviction.
ARRANGEMENT OF CLAUSES

1. Short title
